

Colour in a Rockpool

Colour in the rockpool with its myriad of fantastic invertebrates (animals without backbones). From the colourful sea anemones (related to corals and jellyfish), to the limpets stuck on the rocks (these are molluscs and related to animals like snails), and the shore crab sheltering under an overhanging rock.

